Watch one of the world's most glamorous, exciting events on board a luxury yacht, moored in the famous Monte Carlo harbour. The super-yacht is berthed immediately adjacent to the track between the Nouvelle chicane and Tabac, offering you an unrivalled viewing experience of one of the world's most famous motor races.

For the 2012 Monaco Grand Prix the super yacht is a 43 meter tri-deck Cantieri class, built in Italy. It has exquisite interiors and expansive deck space spread over three levels with a jacuzzi on the sun deck. The yacht easily accommodates 100 guests but for your comfort and viewing experience it will be limited to 80. During your time on board experienced, attentive crew will be on hand so that you can sit back and soak up the sun and atmosphere while sipping champagne – all just a few metres from the action!

Benefits includes:

- Trackside view of the race from the yacht
- All-day open bar including Champagne
- Luxury buffet breakfast
- Pre-lunch canapes
- Gourmet luncheon
- High tea

- Pre-qualifying Q&A reception with a leading F1 journalist

Activities on the yacht take place from 08:00-18:00 each day.

Please note: this is a race viewing option and does not include accommodation or access to the Friday pit walk. Prices are per person.
